

Legal Research Workshops Continue

The Law Library will continue to offer legal research workshops until the first year legal research exam on Thursday, October 26. These workshops are held Monday through Friday in the Supreme Court Alcove.

Upcoming workshops will cover administrative regulations, court rules and secondary sources. The final workshops will review all previously covered topics to help first year students prepare for the legal research exam.

Workshop sign-up sheets are available on a table near the library entrance, so don't miss these opportunities to brush up on your legal research skills!

Popular Legal Movies

In conjunction with the Christian Legal Society (CLS), the Law Library has started a collection of popular legal movies. These movies are available at the Circulation Desk and can be checked out for 24 hours. Current titles in the collection include Class Action and A Few Good Men, which were donated by the CLS. The library plans to add a new movie to the collection each month.

If you have specific movies in mind that you would like to see added, or if you would like to contribute to the collection, please contact Nancy Armstrong, Director of the Law Library, at 419-772-2692 or n-armstrong@onu.edu. DVDs are preferred, but VHS tapes may also be accepted.

Did You Know...

The Law Library has popular study aids, including Nutshells, Hornbooks, the Lexis Understanding series, Aspen's Examples and Explanations series, and West's Black Letter, Exam Pro, and Quick Review series, available on a wide variety of legal subjects. Study aids for the bar exam are also available for your use.

To find them, try keyword searches in POLAR using the name of your subject and the type of book you want.

For example, in POLAR, choose to search by keyword for “property and nutshell” or “contracts and hornbook” or “torts and understanding” or “evidence and examples and explanations.”

These study aids can be found either in the library stacks or on reserve at the Circulation Desk. If you can't find what you need, let us know and we'll be happy to help you find it.
